

GEORGIA ENVIRONMENTALIST

ENVIRONMENTAL HEALTH FACES NEW CHALLENGES WITH UNITY AND DIVERSITY

June 2005

IN THIS ISSUE . . .

Georgia Association for Food Protection

Swimming Pool Accidents

Interview: Senator Johnny Isakson

NEHA Board of Directors Update

... AND MUCH MORE!

Environmental Health Professionals Your Invisible HEROES*

* Division of Public Health and Department of Agriculture

Though you may not see us, we are out there, dedicated to keeping you safe and healthy

Lead Poisoning Prevention

Rodent Control

Hazardous Chemicals Health Assessment

Livestock Monitoring

Weights and Measures

Dairy Farm Tests

Tourist Accommodation Inspections

Pest Control Licensing

Radon Testing

Pool Inspections

Indoor Air Quality

West Nile Prevention

Well Water Quality

Vector Control

Retail Food Store and Restaurant Inspections

Health Education

Occupational Health and Safety

Septic System Inspections

Foodborne Illness Surveillance

Arbovirus Surveillance

Retail Seafood Permitting

Pesticide Formulation

Certified Food Safety Manager Training

Fertilizer and Feed Analyses

Water/Soda Bottling Plant Inspections

Rabies Control